Case No. 19-23590-CIV-BLOOM/Louis

HAVANA DOCKS CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISES, LTD.,

Defendant.
_____/

HAVANA DOCKS' MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION
OF EVIDENCE WITHHELD UNDER THE ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

Through its twenty-nine affirmative defenses, Defendant Royal Caribbean Cruises, Ltd. injects a host of issues into this case, including its knowledge of the LIBERTAD Act and regulations issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). (D.E. 59.) And through its two privilege logs, each exceeding 1,000 entries, Royal withholds substantial documents bearing on that issue.[1] Eleventh Circuit precedent, however, is clear that where a party injects its knowledge of the law, as Royal does, it waives privilege over the attorney advice informing that knowledge.[2] The Court should order Royal to produce withheld evidence reflecting its knowledge of the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations.

Royal also withholds over 700 exchanges with COMAR S.A., an agency of the Cuban Government, pertaining to Royal's contract negotiations with the Cuban Government, a circumstance where no reasonable expectation of confidentiality exists. Among the withheld records are reports and minutes of meetings with Cuban Government agencies that were drafted by COMAR as Royal's liaison to the Cuban Government. These documents do not qualify as legal advice and are not privileged. The Court should order Royal to produce its exchanges with COMAR.

LEGAL STANDARD [3]

The attorney-client privilege applies to "confidential communications between an attorney and his client relating to a legal matter for which the client has sought professional advice." Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Fla. v. United States, 516 F.3d 1235, 1262 (11th Cir. 2008). In the Eleventh Circuit, the party invoking the privilege "must establish":

> (1) the asserted holder of the privilege is or sought to become a client; (2) the person to whom the communication was made (a) is (the) member of a bar of a court, or his subordinate and (b) in connection with this communication is acting as a lawyer; (3) the communication relates to a fact of which the attorney was informed (a) by his client (b) without the presence of strangers (c) for the purpose of securing primarily either (i) an opinion on law or (ii) legal services or (iii) assistance in some legal proceeding, and not (d) for the purpose of committing a crime or tort; and (4) the privilege has been (a) claimed and (b) not waived by the client.

[3] Federal common law of privilege applies to this suit because it arises under federal law. See Hancock v. Hobbs, 967 F.2d 462, 466 (11th Cir. 1992); Fed. R. Evid. 501.

United States v. Fulwood, 569 F. App'x 691, 694 (11th Cir. 2014); United States v. Noriega, 917 F.2d 1543, 1550 (11th Cir. 1990) (same).[4]

ARGUMENT

I. Royal Waived Privilege Over Documents and Communications Reflecting Its Knowledge of the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC Regulations.

Absence of waiver is an element of the attorney-client privilege that must be established by the privilege's proponent. See Fulwood, 569 F. App'x at 694; Noriega, 917 F.2d at 1550; MCZ/Centrum Flamingo II, LLC v. City of Miami Beach, No. 08-cv-22419, 2009 WL 10701007, *3 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 6, 2009) (Altonaga, J.) (for "at-issue waiver," the "burden of establishing nonwaiver' rests on the party seeking to assert a claim of privilege," and collecting cases).

Waiver may occur expressly or by implication. See Cox v. Adm. U.S. Steel & Carnegie, 17 F.3d 1386, 1414 (11th Cir. 1994). With respect to the latter, the rationale of the doctrine of waiver by implication is that "[a] defendant may not use the privilege to prejudice his opponent's case or to disclose some selected communications for self-serving purposes." Id. at 1417. It "reflects the position that the attorney-client privilege 'was intended as a shield, not a sword.'" Id. (quoting GAB Bus. Servs., Inc. v. Syndicate 627, 809 F.2d 755, 762 (11th Cir. 1987). Thus, where a party "injects into the case an issue that in fairness requires an examination of otherwise protected

[4] "The attorney-client privilege 'is not a favored evidentiary concept in the law since it serves to obscure the truth, and it should be construed as narrowly as is consistent with its purpose.'" United States v. Suarez, 820 F.2d 1158, 1160 (11th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 987 (1987).

communications," the party "waives the privilege over those communications." Id. at 1419. Courts find waiver by implication:

> (1) When a client testifies concerning portions of the attorney-client communication, (2) when a client places the attorney-client relationship directly at issue, and (3) when a client asserts reliance on an attorney's advice as an element of a claim or defense.

Id. at 1418 (alterations and citation omitted).

In Cox, the Eleventh Circuit further held that "[w]here a party asserts that he believed his actions to be lawful, he waives the attorney-client privilege as to what his attorney told him about the legality of his actions." Id. at 1418-20, 1423.

> All of these established exceptions to the rules of privilege have a common denominator; in each instance, the party asserting the privilege placed information protected by it in issue through some affirmative act for his own benefit, and to allow the privilege to protect against disclosure of such information would have been manifestly unfair to the opposing party.

Id. (alteration omitted; quoting Pitney-Bowes, Inc. v. Mestre, 86 F.R.D. 444, 447 (S.D. Fla. 1980) (Aronovitz, J.); Hearn v. Rhay, 68 F.R.D. 574, 581 (E.D. Wash. 1975)). "In such cases, 'there is a serious danger that the privilege-holder's assertions are false or misleading.'" Siegmund v. Xuelian Bian, 2018 WL 3725775, at *11 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 1, 2018) (Louis, Mag. J.); see also United States v. Woodall, 438 F.2d 1317, 1324-26 (5th Cir. 1970) (en banc).

A "defendant need not raise an affirmative defense to inject a new issue into the case, although it frequently occurs that way." Cox, 17 F.3d. at 1419 (citing Lorenz v. Valley Forge Ins. Co., 815 F.2d 1095, 1098 (7th Cir. 1987)).

Nor is the explicit assertion of advice of counsel defense a pre-requisite to finding implied waiver. Id. at 1418; Barker ex rel. United States v. Columbus Reg.

Healthcare Sys., Inc., 2014 WL 4287744, at *4 (M.D. Ga. Aug. 29, 2014); United States v. Fresenius Med. Care Holdings, Inc., 2014 WL 11517840, at *2 (N.D. Ga. Feb. 21, 2014).

Rather, the operative question is whether a party "injected the issue of its knowledge of the law into the case and thereby waived the attorney client privilege." Cox, 17 F.3d at 1419. Where a party injects its beliefs about the legality of its conduct, reliance on advice of counsel as the basis of those beliefs is presumed. See, e.g., In re Namenda Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litig., 2017 WL 2226591, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. May 19, 2017) ("Implied reliance on advice of counsel sufficient to waive privilege is confined to situations involving a party's state of mind concerning a question of law, such as the party's belief as to the lawfulness of its conduct.") (citation omitted); Maar v. Beall's, Inc., 237 F. Supp. 3d 1336, 1340 (S.D. Fla. 2017) (Middlebrooks, J.) ("It is the articulation of a claim or defense explicitly relying on the litigant's subjective thinking, as potentially influenced by advice from legal counsel, that activates the doctrine of implied waiver.").[5]

[5] Last year, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed a district court's order denying an implied waiver argument, in part, because the defendants "did not assert an advice of counsel defense" and did not put forth an "offensive, selective waiver of privilege that entitles [plaintiff] to discover the privileged material." Knox v. Roper Pump Co., 957 F.3d 1237, 1248-49 (11th Cir. 2020). Knox is materially distinguishable. Unlike this case, Knox did not involve a party asserting its reliance on Government representations, and then withholding as privileged the evidence that forms the foundation of its knowledge of the law. Cox, 17 F.3d at 1418, 1423; In re Namenda, 2017 WL 2226591, at *5 (reliance on advice of counsel is presumed where party injects its knowledge of the law).

Royal's Government Reliance Defense

Royal asserts through its Twenty-Sixth Defense that Havana Docks' "claim is barred because Royal Caribbean reasonably relied upon the continuous and serial suspension of the [LIBERTAD] Act." (D.E. 59 at 9.) In its Third Defense, Royal invokes the Fifth Amendment's Due Process Clause, asserting immunity from liability under the LIBERTAD Act because:

> Plaintiff is seeking to hold Royal Caribbean liable for conduct that was authorized by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Department of Treasury, under the Cuban Assets Control Regulations ("CACR"), 31 CFR Part 515, and by the Bureau of Industry and Security, U.S. Department of Commerce, under the Export Administration Regulations, 13 CFR Part 730.

(Id. at 5.)

In the context of a government reliance defense, like the one Royal asserts, the doctrine of waiver by implication applies to prevent the unfairness that would otherwise ensue from prohibiting discovery of attorney-client communications:

> These defenses do not solely relate to the 'objective' representations of [the Department of Energy (DOE)] but directly concern Exxon's subjective interpretation and understanding of those representations; i.e., Exxon's corporate state of mind. As in the Connell case, Exxon's affirmative defenses necessarily revolve around whether Exxon did, in fact, primarily or solely rely upon a particular DOE regulation or communication when the company made its pricing decisions. Thus, the only way to assess the validity of Exxon's affirmative defenses, voluntarily injected into this dispute, is to investigate attorney-client communications where Exxon's interpretation of various DOE policies and directives was established and where Exxon expressed its intentions regarding compliance with those policies and directives. There is no other reasonable way for plaintiff to explore Exxon's corporate state of mind, a consideration now central to this suit.

United States v. Exxon Corp., 94 F.R.D. 246, 247-50 (D.D.C. 1981); McLaughlin v. Lunde Truck Sales, Inc., 714 F. Supp. 916, 918-919 (N.D. Ill. 1989) ("the defendants' defense in the instant case depend on whether the defendants relied upon a particular DOL representation or action. Consequently, the primary way to assess the validity of this reliance is to investigate attorney/client communications where the defendants' interpretations of DOL actions were established.").[6]

Every member of Royal's joint defense group has pled these government reliance defenses, which inject Royal's knowledge of the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations. (See MSC Case, 19-cv-23588, D.E. 133 at 15 (S.D. Fla); Norwegian Case, 19-cv-23591, D.E. 107 at 18; Carnival Case, 19-cv-21724, D.E. 160 at 18.) In fact, two members of Royal's joint defense group have argued that these defenses preclude liability in this case because the cruise lines did not know that their conduct on the Subject Property violated the LIBERTAD Act, because the cruise lines believed that [6] Southwire Co. v. Essex Grp., Inc., 570 F. Supp. 643 (N.D. Ill. 1983) ("Even were we to view Essex' 'objective' evidence as entitling it to an inference or prima facie showing of reliance, fairness dictates that Southwire be permitted to rebut the showing. The supposed 'objective'—'subjective' dichotomy is in a way illusory. Essex' 'objective' evidence, which may include proof of delay, unfulfilled threats of suit and the like, is merely evidence which permits a trier of fact to infer that Essex actually relied on those factors. If Southwire has evidence that Essex actually relied on something other than Southwire's actions or silence, that serves to undercut the inference that Essex seeks to have drawn from its 'objective' evidence. In short, Essex asserts that it relied on Southwire's delay in building the four plants; Southwire says that Essex relied on something else. What Essex is arguing here is that Southwire is not entitled to prove what Essex actually relied on, even though the court should be entitled to infer actual reliance from Essex' own proof. The unfairness of Essex' position is manifest.").

See also Blue Lake Forest Prods., Inc. v. United States, 75 Fed. Cl. 779, 784-86 (2007); Minebea Co., Ltd. v. Papst, 355 F. Supp. 2d 518, 522-25 (D.D.C. 2005) (party's characterization of reliance defense as "good faith (as in Exxon), actual, justifiable or reasonable" is irrelevant to the at-issue waiver analysis).

their conduct complied with that statute and OFAC regulations, and because the cruise lines relied on Government representations and encouragement to travel to Cuba. (MSC Case, D.E. 24 at 2-3, 12-13, 16, 18-19; D.E. 39 at 10; D.E. 69 at 7-8, 18; D.E. 77 at 6-7; NCL Case, D.E. 66 at 4, 12-13, 16-20; D.E. 78 at 2, 10, 11, 13.)

If Royal is raising these same defenses, then it has injected its knowledge of the law and waived attorney-client privilege over the evidence that forms the basis of its understanding of the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations. Cox, 17 F.3d at 1418-20, 1423 (where a party injects its knowledge of the law, it waives privilege over what its attorney told it about the law).

The Court should order Royal to produce that evidence so that Havana Docks may discover whether Royal actually relied on the LIBERTAD Act's suspension in deciding to operate on confiscated property (D.E. 59 at 9) and whether it truly believed that regulations issued by OFAC would insulate it from liability under Title III.

Royal's State of Mind Defense

For its Twenty-Seventh Defense, Royal asserts that "Plaintiff's claim is barred because Royal Caribbean did not knowingly and intentionally traffic in the Subject Property." (D.E. 59 at 9.) Like the government reliance defense, this defense is common among all members of Royal's joint defense group, one of which described it as premised on the cruise lines' 'lawful intent' with respect to travel to Cuba. (See Norwegian Case, at D.E. 31 at 5-11; D.E. 41 at 2-6, D.E. 107 at 16 (Norwegian's "intent was at all times lawful").) This is a form of the defense of good faith. See United States v. Morris, 20 F.3d 1111, 1115-16 (11th Cir. 1994) (for defense of good faith, "intent may be negated by a good-faith misunderstanding of the law or a good-faith belief that one is not violating the law, regardless of whether or not the belief is reasonable").

If Royal's state of mind defense is like Norwegian's—that Royal cannot be found to have acted intentionally because of a claimed belief in the legality of its conduct on the Subject Property—then Royal has injected its knowledge of the law and waived privilege, notwithstanding its attempt to artfully plead around the phrase "good faith." Cox, 17 F.3d at 1418-20, 1423 (where party injects its knowledge of the law, it waives privilege over what its attorney told it about the legality of its conduct); Abromavage v. Deutsche Bank Secs., Inc., 2019 WL 6790513, 3-4 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 11, 2019) ("While [defendant's] answer does not plead 'advice of counsel' or 'good faith' using those words, [defendant] is necessarily relying, to some extent, on the actions and recommendations of its in-house counsel to prove that it adhered to anti-retaliation law and policies in good faith," and finding waiver); Scott v. Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc., 67 F. Supp. 3d 607, 614-17, n.6 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (similar).[7]

If Royal intends to use its Twenty-Seventh Defense to present evidence to a finder of fact about its intentions and beliefs in the legality of its conduct under the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations, then it cannot invoke the privilege to prevent [7] Moreover, Royal's Twenty Seventh Defense, as pled, is not an affirmative defense at all. Compare D.E. 59 at 9, with In re Rawson Food Serv., Inc., 846 F.2d 1343, 1349 (11th Cir. 1988) ("A defense which points out a defect in the plaintiff's prima facie case is not an affirmative defense.").

Havana Docks from discovering the evidence that forms the foundation for those intentions and beliefs. Cox, 17 F.3d at 1418-20, 1423. Havana Docks therefore respectfully requests that the Court order Royal to produce withheld records reflecting its knowledge of and intent to comply with the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations.

II. Royal's Communications with the Cuban Government Are Not Privileged.

A. Royal's Expectation of Confidentiality Over its Communications with the Cuban Government is Not Reasonable.

Royal also asserts privilege over its communications with COMAR, S.A. ("COMAR"). COMAR is not a private law firm; it is an agency of the Cuban Government that specializes in maritime law and represents Aries Transportes, S.A. ("Aries"), the Cuban Government agency that operates the Subject Property. (Exhibit C, Dep. of L. Vidal from Norwegian Case, at 19:8-20 (Dec. 4, 2020); Exhibit D, Dep. of Norwegian Cruise Line from Norwegian Case at 81:23-82:4 (Nov. 5, 2020).) In support of its privilege assertion, Royal provided the declaration of its Senior Associate In-House Counsel, Mayte Cabada. (Exhibit E, Decl. of M. Cabada.) Ms. Cabada states that "COMAR provided legal advice to Royal Caribbean in connection with Royal Caribbean's activities in Cuba, including representing Royal Caribbean during Royal Caribbean's dealings with Aries Transportes S.A., Empresa Consignataria Mambisa, and Havanatur." (Id. at ¶ 8.) Evidence in Havana Docks' other cases reveals that the Cuban Government appointed COMAR as the cruise lines' representative in connection with their negotiations with the Cuban Government. (Exhibit F, Dep. of G. Israel, Carnival Case (Dec. 3, 2020) at 251:8-20.)[8]

In effect, Royal is asserting attorney-client privilege over communications with a department of the Cuban Government (COMAR), relating to its contract negotiations with other agencies of the Cuban Government (Aries, Mapor and Cubanacan), where both parties to the negotiation are represented by the same Cuban Government attorneys.

The attorney-client privilege only applies to confidential communications. Bogle v. McClure, 332 F.3d 1347, 1358 (11th Cir. 2003). "To determine if a particular communication is confidential and protected by the attorney-client privilege, the privilege holder must prove the communication was '(1) intended to remain confidential and (2) under the circumstances was reasonably expected and understood to be confidential.'" Id. (quoting United States v. Bell, 776 F.2d 965, 971 (11th Cir. 1985)). "Thus the relevant inquiry is not whether [Royal] expected [its] discussions with [COMAR] to remain confidential, but rather, whether [its] expectation was reasonable." Bell, 776 F.2d at 971 (emphasis added). And where a party knew or should have known of grounds to question the loyalty of the person with whom it was conversing, the reasonableness of a party's expectation of confidentiality in that communication is doubtful. United States v. Melvin, 650 F.2d 641, 645-46 (5th Cir. Unit B 1981).[9, 10]

[8] See also Norwegian Case, 19-cv-23591 (S.D. Fla.) at D.E. 132-4 at 251:8-20.

Although Ms. Cabada generally claims confidence over Royal's communications with COMAR (Exhibit E at ¶¶ 6, 7, 10), under the circumstances, Royal's expectation of confidentiality was not reasonable. For one, a private party does not have an expectation of confidentiality over its conversations with attorneys of a communist government, and Havana Docks has found no authority to the contrary. Havana Docks has also not found any court ruling finding confidential a party's communications with an attorney who represented both sides of a negotiation. If anything, case law appears to support the opposite. Cf. Trinity Amb. Serv., Inc. v. G&L Amb. Serv., Inc., 578 F. Supp. 1280, 1285 (D. Conn. 1984) ("The expectation that information conveyed to a co-party's counsel will be held in confidence from that attorney's client is no more plausible than the expectation that an attorney concurrently representing parties in the execution of a joint venture or franchise agreement will keep information relayed to him by one party secret from the other."). Yet Royal's expectation of confidentiality is even lower than that here, where its [9] "In Stein v. Reynolds Securities, Inc., 667 F.2d 33, 34 (11th Cir.1982) we adopted as precedent decisions of the former Fifth Circuit, Unit B, rendered after September 30, 1981." Bell, 776 F.2d at 971 n.14.

[10] "In their actual decisions, courts almost invariably inquire into whether a reasonable person would have expected the communication to reach only other privileged persons in the circumstances and not into the actual, subjective state of mind of the communicating person. That is the approach stated in the section." Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers § 71 Attorney-Client Privilege—"In Confidence," Reporters Note to Comment B (2020).

attorneys and negotiating opponents are all departments of the communist Cuban Government. Indeed, other cruise lines were so concerned about COMAR's inherent conflict that they retained separate outside Cuban counsel, not associated with the Cuban Government, to serve as their independent legal advisers. (Exhibit G, Dep. of A. Perez, Carnival Case (Dec. 23, 2020) at 44:6-24.)[11]

Because Royal has not proven a reasonable expectation of confidentiality over its communications with COMAR, the Court should overrule its asserted privilege over exchanges with that entity. Bogle, 332 F.3d at 1358; Bell, 776 F.2d at 971; Melvin, 650 F.2d at 645-46.

B. Communications About Royal's Business Negotiations and Meetings with the Cuban Government are Not Privileged.

Royal has withheld as privileged substantial communications with COMAR pertaining to Royal's business negotiations and meetings with the Cuban Government. (See Exhibit E at ¶ 8 (COMAR represented Royal during its "dealing with Aries Transportes S.A., Empresa Consignataria Mambisa, and Havanatur," all agencies on the Cuban Government); Exhibit H, Log of Withheld COMAR Communications.)

"Only confidential communications conveyed for the primary purpose of rendering legal advice are protected by the attorney-client privilege; 'business advice which is unrelated to legal advice is not protected by the attorney-client privilege even when it is between an attorney and a client.'" Kaplan v. Nautilus Ins. Co., 2018 WL 6445886, *2 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 17, 2018) (Louis, Mag, J.) (emphasis added);

[11] See also Norwegian Case, 19-cv-23591 (S.D. Fla.) at D.E. 132-5 at 44:6-24.

Siegmund, 2018 WL 3725775, at *5. "Where one consults an attorney not as a lawyer but as a friend or as a business adviser or banker, or negotiator the consultation is not professional nor the statement privileged." In re Lindsey, 148 F.3d 1100, 1106 (D.C. Cir. 1998) (alterations omitted; quoting 1 MCCORMICK ON EVIDENCE § 88, at 322–24 (4th ed.1992)).[12]

As demonstrated by Ms. Cabada's declaration, COMAR in large part appears to have acted as Royal's business agent, business adviser and conduit to the Cuban Government. (Exhibit E at ¶ 8.) Royal's privilege log reflects the same and indicates that Royal has improperly withheld a number of communications pertaining to its meetings with agencies of the Cuban Government, including minutes of these meetings that were transcribed by COMAR.[13] Because these documents do not involve legal advice, they are not privileged and the Court should order them

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Havana Docks respectfully requests that the Court grant this motion and order Royal to produce withheld evidence reflecting its knowledge of the LIBERTAD Act and OFAC regulations, and its exchanges with COMAR, an agency of the Cuban Government.

moment, but I remember that they were Department of Transportation individuals.

Q. And after you met the Cuban authorities from the Department of Transportation in a building in Havana, where did you go?

A. I believe we proceeded to meet with our attorneys who were also in the city of Havana.

Q. Were these attorneys from Comar or were these attorneys from another law firm?

A. Comar.

Q. And what's your understanding of what Comar is?

A. Comar are legal counsel in Cuba that handle maritime matters.

Q. Is it a private law firm?

A. Not that I'm aware of.

Q. Is it an agency of the Cuban Government?

A. I believe that to be the case.

Q. I'm sorry?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So you met with your attorneys in Havana. They have an office in Havana? It's an office building?

A. Yes.

Q. What was Comar doing? Was this to sign

The Cuban entities with which Norwegian Cruise Lines had contracts are Havanatur, Comar, Aries, and Mambisa; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Are there any other entities that I left out from that list?

A. No.

Q. Now, sir, could you just describe for me at a high level what was the legal department's role or involvement, if any, in the negotiation of the contracts with Havanatur, Comar, Aries and Mambisa?

A. So going back to spring of 2016, we began negotiations with some of the Cuban counterparties, specifically -- I'm sorry. Let me go back just a little bit earlier in that timeline.

So we signed our agreement with Comar in February of 2016, I believe --

Q. 2015?

A. No, 2016.

Q. 2016.

A. '16, '16.

Q. '15 or '16?

A. No, '16, '16.

Q. Okay, '16. One six.

A. Yeah, one six.

So I said just earlier in that same calendar year, we signed the Comar engagement letter which we signed, you know, via electronic, and then we began negotiating in earnest with our -- the Cuba counterparty Aries and Consignataria in the spring of 2016.

And my role would have been, you know, negotiating -- advocating for our boilerplate terms that we require of vendors, and doing that -- we did -- at the initial -- at that period of time we also had outside counsel that assisted, you know, in that initial stage -- outside counsel here in the United States.

And then we sourced our comments through Comar, and then they made their way back to, you know, Aries and Empresa Consignataria Mambisa. And then in the fall we began negotiating the contract with Havanatur. And my role was essentially to, you know, ensure that -- you know, that we had, to the extent possible, you know, our standard contractual terms in those agreements.

Q. What would some of those standard contract -- oh, I'm sorry. Go ahead.

A. I was just going to say -- and I

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Good morning. We are on the record for the video deposition of Hugo Cancio taken in the matter of Havana Docks Corporation versus Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. Today is November 12, 2020, and the time is 9:30 a.m. This deposition is being conducted remotely via Zoom. The court reporter is Lance Steinbeisser, and the videographer is Tony Barlow, myself.

Will counsel please introduce themselves after which the court reporter will swear in the witness.

MS. CASEY: Good morning. This is Stephanie Casey on behalf of Havana Docks Corporation. With me today -- we are via Zoom, and calling in today are Bob Martinez, Ellie Futterman, who is a paralegal in our office, Rodney Margol, and Jerry Johnson is from Havana Docks Corporation. I think I have everyone.

MR. LORENZO: Good morning. Richard Lorenzo with the law firm of Hogan Lovells on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Lines Holdings Ltd. I'm joined today by my colleague Daniel Balmori, and we're also joined by Dan Farkas, Norwegian's general counsel, and Lincoln Vidal, Norwegian's deputy general counsel.

Page 6

Good morning, all. Thank you.

MR. POSTMAN: Good morning. My name is Barry Postman. I'm here on behalf of Hugo and Fuego Industries from Cole Scott & Kissane, and I'm by myself today.

Thereupon--

HUGO M. CANCIO

was duly administered the oath: Do you swear or affirm that the testimony you are about to give in this cause will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Mr. Cancio, good morning. How are you, sir?

A. Good morning. How are you?

Q. Good.

Sir, just for the record, could you give me your full name and spell your last name, please.

A. Yes. My full name is Hugo, middle initial M, last name Cancio, C-A-N-C-I-O.

Q. And, sir, where are you employed?

Page 7

A. Fuego Enterprises.

Q. Are you employed by Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd., the defendant in this action?

A. No.

Q. And from time to time in this deposition I'm going to be referring to the Defendant Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. as either NCL or Norwegian. Is that okay with you?

A. That is fine.

Q. Okay. You'll understand what I'm talking about, hopefully.

Sir, have you had your deposition taken before?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Okay. In what context?

A. I was a plaintiff in a lawsuit.

Q. And was that here in Florida?

A. Yes.

Q. What kind of lawsuit?

A. A civil lawsuit.

Q. And do you know if it was in circuit court or county court?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Was there a lot of money at issue or not that much money at issue?

Page 8

A. A lot of money at issue.

Q. Okay. So it probably was circuit court. And what was the nature of the lawsuit?

A. We filed a lawsuit against the Homestead Speedway for a breach of contract.

Q. And, sir, you were personally named as a plaintiff in the lawsuit, or was it one of your companies?

A. No, it was one of the companies that I represented.

Q. Okay. And was that Fuego Enterprises, sir?

A. No.

Q. What was the plaintiff? What was the entity?

A. I don't remember the name of the company. It's been many years, but Louis Aries was one of the plaintiffs and --

Q. And what's your relationship to him?

A. We were partners.

Q. And when did this deposition occur?

A. To the best of my recollection, it's over 15, 16 years ago.

Q. Besides this deposition 15 or 16 years ago, have you been deposed in any other action?

Page 9

A. No.

Q. Okay. So just for the benefit of time passing, I'll go through some of the sort of rules, although I'm sure your attorneys have covered this already with you.

You are testifying today under oath. I'm going to be asking you questions. You're going to be answering. If you can wait until I finish asking my question so that you can answer, our court reporter will be able to get everything down. And if you could try -- I know sometimes it's hard to not give a uh-huh or, you know, a shake of the head or a nod of the head because that makes it difficult for the court reporter to take down; okay?

A. I understand.

Q. If I ask any question, sir, that you do not understand, please let me know, and I'll restate it. I won't be offended. And if I make any misstatement or say anything that you don't think is correct, please let me know as well, and I'll try to either give you a better question or correct the statement; okay?

A. Okay.

Q. All right. Sir, I'm going to show you what I think will be marked Plaintiff's 38 sequentially from the last deposition -- someone correct me if that's incorrect -- which will be the Plaintiff's Re-Notice of Deposition.
And, sir, just let me know when you can pull that up.
MR. POSTMAN: Is this the one that you sent yesterday?
MS. CASEY: It is.
MR. POSTMAN: He may not have seen it, so that you know, because it came in yesterday but --
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Okay. Well, sir, I'll represent to you that this is identical to the notice of deposition except that the date is different because it reflects today's date, but I'm anticipating that you're going to tell me that you have not seen this document before.
A. I have not.
Q. Okay. So, Ellie, could you put up the original notice, please.

Page 11

MS. FUTTERMAN: Steph, that's going to take me a minute. I have the one from yesterday that we sent, so.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Okay. Well, how about this? If you, sir, go to page 4 of the document that is in front of you, Plaintiff's Exhibit 38. Let me know when you get there.
MR. POSTMAN: You said page 4?
MS. CASEY: Yeah, page 4 which is Exhibit 1.
MR. POSTMAN: Okay.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Okay. Have you seen this before? And I will represent to you that it's the exact same exhibit that was on the notice of deposition, the original one. Have you seen this --
A. Yes, I have.
Q. Okay. And, sir, when did you see this Exhibit 1 before?
A. I believe a couple of days ago.
Q. Sir, do you understand that Norwegian has selected you to testify under oath today on Norwegian's behalf as to certain topics identified in this notice?

Page 12

A. Yes, I do.
Q. All right. And you understand that Norwegian has authorized you to speak today as its representative?
A. Yes.
Q. And you are going to testify under oath today as to four topics; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. All right. And those topics are topics II(B), IV(B), IV(D), and V(H). Do I have that right?
A. Yes.
MR. LORENZO: Stephanie, I think it's V(I) which is on page 8.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Well, I thought it was V(H), but that's okay. I can cover V(I) too.
So, sir, what did you do to prepare for this deposition today?
A. Met with the lawyers from Norwegian and my personal attorney.
Q. When did you do that?
MR. POSTMAN: Just give the date.
A. I believe it was Monday, Tuesday, and yesterday.

Page 13

BY MS. CASEY:
Q. How much time did you spend with your attorneys on Monday?
MR. POSTMAN: So I'm going to object and instruct the witness not to answer that question in terms of how much time he spent with his counsel.
I guess I need to give my name if I'm doing the objecting. Does that make sense for the court reporter since we're not in the same room? This is Barry Postman on his behalf.
MS. CASEY: Mr. Postman, are you defending this deposition on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Lines?
MR. LORENZO: Richard Lorenzo is. I make the same objection.
MR. POSTMAN: But just so the record -- I want to answer the question, since you've asked it. No. I thought I said this at the beginning. I'm representing the witness individually as well as the corporate entity Fuego Industries. And although he's a corporate rep, he's also a person.
So on his behalf, he has rights, and I'm asserting that objection. I guess Norwegian is too. But on his behalf, I'm asserting that objection.

MR. LORENZO: Norwegian is asserting that objection. Thanks.

MS. CASEY: And just so that the record is clear, this portion of the deposition is the Rule 30(b)(6) portion of the deposition.

THE STENOGRAPHER: Sorry. Can I just add? If there is going to be two people objecting -- you're not on the camera -- you're going to have to identify yourself because it's really difficult for me to identify your voices when I just hear voices.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. So, sir, on Monday, how much time did you spend with your attorneys meeting in preparation for this deposition?

MR. LORENZO: Objection.

MR. POSTMAN: Join. And I instruct him not to answer.

MS. CASEY: And, sir, Mr. Postman, you're instructing him not to answer based on what?

MR. POSTMAN: The attorney-client work product privilege. I think you're entitled -- you've asked me -- I'm happy to have the conversation or just let this go --

MS. CASEY: No, I just want it on the record.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. And, sir, without telling me the substance of any communication, can you tell me how much time you spent with your attorneys on Tuesday in preparation for this deposition?

MR. LORENZO: The same objection. Objection. Attorney-client privilege.

MR. POSTMAN: Join, and I'm instructing the witness not to answer.

MS. CASEY: What is the grounds?

MR. POSTMAN: It's the same grounds, ma'am. Attorney-client privilege and work product privileges.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. And, sir, yesterday, without giving me the substance of any communications that you had with your attorneys, yesterday when you met with your attorneys, how much time did you spend with them in preparation for this deposition --

MR. LORENZO: Objection. Attorney-client privilege. Work product.

MR. POSTMAN: Join, and instruct him not to answer. The same grounds.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Sir, in preparing for this deposition, did you review the deposition testimony given by Mr. Mario Parodi on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Lines on November 5, 2020?

A. No.

Q. Did you review any other documents in preparation for your deposition today?

A. No.

Q. Except for the three meetings that you had with your attorneys, did you do anything else in preparation for this deposition?

A. No.

Q. Did you speak with anybody from Norwegian Cruise Line in preparation for this deposition?

A. No.

Q. Sir, did you bring any documents or notes with you today to assist you in giving your testimony today?

A. No.

Q. All right. And if at any point in time during this deposition you need to refer to a document, that's fine, but please let me know what document you're referring to; okay?

A. Okay.

Q. Sir, what is your relationship with Norwegian Cruise Line?

A. I have a consultant agreement, and my company has an agreement to provide shore excursions for Norwegian Cruise Lines.

Q. What company is that, sir?

A. Fuego Enterprises.

Q. And do you have any other companies beyond Fuego Enterprises?

A. Yes.

Q. What companies are those?

A. Well, I do not. I -- I have to go back. I do not. Those companies are wholly owned subsidiaries of Fuego; so I don't personally own those companies.

Q. And Fuego Enterprises is a corporation?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. And what are the subsidiaries of Fuego Enterprises, Inc.?

A. OnCuba Travel.

Q. Is there another business entity called Art Cuba?

Page 42

to clear immigration and customs at the first port of call in that foreign country or in every single port of call on the itinerary if every single port of call is in the same country?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. At every single port facility.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. And what Cuban law is it that requires that, sir?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. I'm not a member of the Cuban Government. I cannot answer that question nor I know of any law that says that.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. When a ship anchors offshore in Cuba, can immigrations and customs be done onboard the ship by the Cuban Government?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. I do not know what you mean by -- I don't know -- I don't understand the question.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. When a ship anchors offshore in Cuba, can the Cuban Government officials that perform customs and immigration come on shore -- I'm sorry -- come onto the ship and perform their services on the ship?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. No.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. And what is your source for that answer?

A. My -- in my conversations with immigration officials, that was not authorized.

Q. When did you have these conversations?

A. Several times.

Q. Can you give me a year?

A. All the years that we had operations in Cuba.

Q. And who were the immigration officials that you spoke with?

A. From the head of immigration to the officers in charge of the Port of Havana.

Q. Okay. And can I have the name?

A. I don't remember the names.

Q. Was anybody else present when you had these conversations with immigration officials?

A. Might have been.

Q. Okay. And if someone might have been there, who would that person be?

A. All their immigration officials.

Page 44

Q. But you don't remember the names of any of them?

A. No, I do not.

Q. Was there anybody at any of these conversations that you had with immigration officials -- let me rephrase that.

Present at any of these meetings with immigration officials, was there ever any person from Norwegian Cruise Lines?

A. No.

Q. All right. Let's turn to topic IV(B).

MR. LORENZO: Ms. Casey, it's Richard Lorenzo. I see we've been going for about an hour, and I see that you're shifting to another category. I don't know if this might be an appropriate time to take a short comfort break.

MS. CASEY: Sure, of course. Let's break for ten minutes.

MR. LORENZO: That will be great. Thank you so much.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are going off the record. The time is 10:28 a.m.

(Break from 10:28 a.m. to 10:40 a.m.)

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record. The time is 10:40 a.m.

Page 45

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Sir, when we left off, we were going to start talking about Topic IV(B), and the topic is, "The facts and documents that support the Defendant's contention that its transactions and uses of the subject property were necessary for the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba, and the names and positions of Defendant employees with such knowledge."

I'll start with the facts part of the question. Sir, could you tell me what are the facts that support Norwegian's contention that its transaction and uses of the Havana Port Terminal facility in Cuba was necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba?

A. The travel to Cuba was part of the Obama Administration's policy to engage in travel and meaningful interaction between Americans and the Cuban people. So under those regulations, the cruise lines, the airlines were fully authorized by the US Government and permitted to engage into those travel services between the 12 categories of travel approved by the Office of Foreign Asset Control.

Q. Okay, sir, and those are the facts that support Norwegian's contention that the transactions and uses of the Havana Port Terminal facility in Cuba was necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba?

MR. LORENZO: Objection.

A. You would have to ask Norwegian that and their lawyers.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Well, sir, I'm asking you because you are speaking on behalf of Norwegian today in this deposition.

A. I understand, but I'm no legal expert on that.

Q. And I'm not asking you for any legal conclusions. I'm asking you for what facts "what facts" support Norwegian's contention.

A. And my opinion on that is that travel to Cuba by cruise lines or by airplanes was fully authorized and in conjunction with the Obama Administration Cuba policies.

Q. Okay. Any other facts that Norwegian Cruise Line will rely upon to support its defense that its transactions and uses of the Havana Port Terminal were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. I believe that's a question that should be addressed to Norwegian.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Yes. And, sir, again, you are Norwegian. Today you are testifying on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd., so I'm asking you as the representative selected by Norwegian Cruise Line whether those are the entirety of the facts that Norwegian will rely upon to support its defense that its transactions and uses of the Havana Port Terminal were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba.

A. I believe that's -- those are the facts.

Q. And what documents support Norwegian's contention that its transactions and uses of the Havana Port Terminal were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba?

A. You will have to address that question to Norwegian's lawyers.

Q. Sir, once again, you have been designated by Norwegian Cruise Line to testify on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Line as to the documents that support Norwegian Cruise Line's contention that its transactions and uses of the subject property, the Havana Port Terminal, were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba; so I'm asking you.

A. Again, I'm not a lawyer. I cannot speculate on those facts. However, the regulations are posted by the Office of Foreign Asset Control. They're there available for anyone to see. I'm not going to get into the specific statute that allows that.

All I can speak in a general manner, that travel to Cuba was fully authorized by the United States Government, by the Office of Foreign Asset Control, and it was -- it was the -- it was the Obama Administration's intentions to engage the Cubans by meaningful interaction traveling by cruise lines and by air.

Q. Do I understand correctly, sir, what you're saying is that the documents that Norwegian Cruise Line will use to support its defense that its transactions and uses of the subject property were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba consists of the OFAC regulations; is that accurate?

A. The cruise lines were fully authorized by the Obama Administration's -- whichever department is in charge, whether it's the commerce department or the transportation department, but the cruise lines as well as the airlines were fully authorized to engage in travel related services to Cuba.

Q. Sir, the topic that was noticed for deposition today says, "The facts and documents that support Defendant's contention that its transactions and uses of the subject property were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba."

I'm not trying to trick you. This is a topic that we provided to Norwegian and that Norwegian selected you as the representative who would be prepared to testify about that. And so I'm just trying to find out from you, sir, what documents "documents" support Norwegian's contention that its transactions and uses of the Havana Port Terminal were necessary to the conduct of lawful travel to Cuba.

A. And I believe I answered the question several times. The cruise lines were fully authorized under the travel guidance posted by the Office of Foreign Asset Control. It was fully authorized under the Obama Administration that

1 cruise lines, airlines, and Americans could travel
2 to Cuba under the 12 categories of travels and
3 regulations posted at the website for the Office of 4 Foreign Asset Control. I don't have those specific

7 Q. I don't know what documents they are 8 either, sir; that's why we noticed this topic for 9 deposition and why we are asking you, sir, as the 10 representative for Norwegian to identify them for 11 us.
12 A. Okay.
13 Q. Can you identify any documents for us?
14 MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
15 BY MS. CASEY:
16 Q. Can you identify any documents for us

18 MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
19 A. Yeah, I don't have those documents.

Holdings' legal department.

Q. All right. And, sir, you'll recall in the beginning of this deposition I asked you if you're going to refer to any documents, you let me know what those documents you are. It looks like you looked at a document. Could you let me know what is it that you looked at?

MR. LORENZO: Ms. Casey, I provided a hard copy of the re-notice of the 30(b)(6) deposition. He was looking at Section IV(B).

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay.

Were there any notes on the re-notice of deposition that you were just looking at, sir?

A. No.

Q. What persons at the legal department would have knowledge on the topics -- or on the topic notices IV(B)?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. I believe Mr. Lincoln Vidal and Mr. Dan Farkas.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Who is Lincoln Vidal?

A. One of the attorneys at the -- one of the in-house attorneys at Norwegian Cruise Line

Holdings.

Q. Did you meet with Mr. Vidal in preparation for your testimony today?

A. He was present at one or two of the meetings, yes.

Q. And then the other gentleman you mentioned was Dan Farkas; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. Who is Dan Farkas?

A. He's the lead counsel at Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings.

Q. Did you meet with Mr. Farkas in preparation for your testimony today?

A. I did not meet with neither one of them. They were present on the preparations with my attorney.

Q. I'm sorry. I didn't get the end of what you said.

A. I said they were present during some of the preparations that I had before this deposition.

Q. Let's turn to Topic IV(D).

That topic, sir, are "The reasons for the decision to choose the subject property as the location to dock the ships operated by the Defendant, and the names and the positions of the Defendant employees involved in that decision."

MR. LORENZO: Ms. Casey, do you have any objection to my providing him a hard copy of that so he has it in front of him so it's not on the screen?

MS. CASEY: Of course not, of course not.

MR. LORENZO: Thank you.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Sir, let me know when you're ready.

A. I am.

Q. And, you know, I apologize because I'm going to do this now out of turn, but you mentioned Mr. Lincoln Vidal and Mr. Dan Farkas for the prior Topic IV(B).

Are there any other employees that you can think of that would have knowledge about that Topic IV(B), B as in "boy"?

A. I cannot speak on behalf of who at Norwegian was knowledgeable of that, but I would -- I would -- I would say that -- that the principals at Norwegian could have been knowledgeable on the subject.

Q. And, sir, again, you can speak on behalf of Norwegian for purposes of this deposition because you are the corporate representative that Norwegian Cruise Lines has actually selected to speak on its behalf.

Who are the other individuals that you were thinking of besides Mr. Vidal and Mr. Farkas?

A. When I said I cannot speak on behalf of Norwegian, I'm referring that I'm not -- I'm not an employee. I'm not at the site of headquarter's offices. I don't know what goes on there.

My job was to represent them in this particular endeavor of operations in Cuba. So I don't know what goes on internally in Norwegian, who's knowledgeable or whatever. So this -- when I say I'm not in a position to speak to that particular subject, that's what I'm trying to say.

Q. Okay. Sir, do you understand that as part of what you're doing here today, testifying on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Line, you had to become prepared to speak on the topics that were designated for deposition here today. Do you understand that?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. Okay. But you're telling me that you were not prepared to identify other persons besides Mr. Vidal and Mr. Farkas?

Page 58

MR. POSTMAN: Object to the form.
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. I'm saying that the persons at Norwegian with regard to this particular subject that I had all communications with was their legal department.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. And my question is a little different. My question to you, sir, is what are the persons, the Norwegian Cruise Line employees, that would have knowledge of Topic IV(B) regardless of whether you personally worked with them?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. And my answer would be, I can't speculate on that, but I would assume that the principals at Norwegian were aware of that particular subject.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. And who are the principals of Norwegian?
A. Mr. Frank Del Rio, the CEO of the company.
Q. Anyone else?
A. No.
Q. All right. Let's turn to IV(D), D as in "David."
Have you reviewed that topic, sir?

Page 59

A. May I? (D)?
Q. D as in "David."
A. Yes.
Q. Are you ready, sir?
A. Yes, I am.
Q. Okay. Can you tell me what were the reasons for the decision to include a Havana stop on the itineraries to Cuba?
A. Because it was the only port that was authorized at the moment.
Q. Okay. Authorized to do what?
A. For the cruise lines to use that facility.
Q. Let's break that down.
I'm asking -- let's start with this. What were the reasons for choosing to stop in the city of Havana, regardless of what port terminal was used, but what were the reasons that NCL considered in making a decision to include a stop in the city of Havana on its Cuba cruises?
A. Well, Havana is the capital of the country of Cuba. It's where all the cultural facilities, museums, art galleries are. You know, Cuba is a cultural powerhouse, but the majority of that concentration on cultural venues and historical venues are in the city of Havana.

Q. And you've been there several times, sir. Is the Havana Port Terminal located close to Old Havana? Is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. All right. And is Old Havana an attractive tourist area?
A. Is Old Havana what? I didn't --
Q. An attractive tourist area.
A. Yes, it is.
Q. Are there tourist attractions -- and you, I think, started talking about this. Are there tourist attractions located close by to the Havana Port Terminal?
A. Please elaborate on tourist attractions.
Q. Sure.
Are there areas or monuments or buildings of interest in Old Havana? What is there to see? Let me start just by asking. What is there to see? I have not personally been there. What is there to see in Old Havana?
A. Old Havana itself, it's a historical landmark. It's one of the most sought-after cities in the world, from churches to monuments to museums to the streets itself. The architecture of Old

Page 61

Havana, the richness of the history in Old Havana. Havana was the -- the center of the colonial years for the Spanish Conquistadors. So the city is rich in its history.
Q. And a lot of those attractions that you're describing are near the Havana Port Terminal; is that right?
A. The city of Havana itself is a historical site. The city of Old Havana has some of those monuments, as I mentioned, and museums and so forth.
Q. Okay. Who was responsible at Norwegian for planning the itineraries to Cuba?
A. I believe it's Mr. Mario Parodi. At least that's my contact person.
Q. And what goes into deciding where to stop? What factors would Norwegian Cruise Line consider when deciding which cities to stop at on a particular itinerary?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
You can answer.
A. My job was to execute those decisions. I'm not going to speculate on what positions -- of how they make those decisions.

Page 62

BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Do you know which departments at Norwegian Cruise Line would be involved in making those decisions?
A. I know the person that will be involved in making the decision, and I believe it's Mario Parodi.
Q. Anybody else that you know of?
A. Yes. There's another lady executive that worked -- at least I communicated with there. Her name is Jennifer -- I don't remember her last name.
Q. "Marmanillo" maybe?
A. Yeah, could be.
Q. Was the legal department consulted before a decision was made by Norwegian Cruise Line to select the Havana Port Terminal as a location to dock ships in Havana?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. I don't know.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Do you know who made the decision at Norwegian Cruise Lines to approve the itineraries that included a stop at the Havana Port Terminal?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

Page 63

A. I don't know.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. And then, sir, can you tell me what the reasons were for Norwegian Cruise Line's choice to stop at the Havana Port Terminal facility in Havana?
A. Can you repeat your question, please?
Q. Sure.
What were the reasons for Norwegian Cruise Lines to choose to stop at the Havana Port Terminal facility in Havana?
A. Aside from what I already answered that Havana is, you know -- is a city -- it's the capital of the nation and where most passengers like to go because of the -- the -- the cultural venues that reside within the boundaries of the city of Havana. It was the city where we could comply more with the 12 categories of travel under the current regulations. Aside from that, it was the only port available at the time we started the operations.
Q. And it was the only port available for a cruise ship to dock at in the city of Havana; is that what you're saying?
A. It was the only port available for Norwegian Cruise Lines at the time.

Page 64

Q. Well, Norweigian Cruise Lines stopped at other ports in Cuba; is that not right, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So is it fair to say that your testimony is that the Havana Port Terminal was the only cruise port terminal that you, sitting here, are aware of that would allow a cruise ship to dock in the city of Havana?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. I think it's fair to say that the Havana port at the time we started the operations was the only port authorized for Norwegian Cruise Line to use.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. In Havana?
A. The Havana port was the only port authorized for Norwegian Cruise Lines to use at the time we started the operations.
Q. Okay. Is it your testimony, sir, that the Havana Port Terminal was the only port that the Cuban Government authorized Norwegian Cruise Line to use in all of the island of Cuba?
A. At the beginning --
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

Page 65

A. Yes, at the beginning of our operations to Cuba.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. When did Norwegian Cruise Line begin operating to Cuba?
A. I believe sometime in 2017.
Q. Okay. Is it fair to say that it was in March of 2017?
A. Yes.
Q. And your testimony here today is, in March of 2017 the only city that Norwegian Cruise Line stopped at was Havana.
All right. Can we take a break?
MR. POSTMAN: Sure. How long?
MS. CASEY: Five minutes.
MR. POSTMAN: Can we make it ten?
MS. CASEY: Sure.
MR. POSTMAN: Great. Thank you.
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are going off the record. The time is 11:12 a.m.
(Break from 11:12 a.m. to 11:25 a.m.)
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record. The time is 11:27 a.m.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. All right, sir. The final topic that you were noticed for is Topic V(I), "All agreements entered into by the Defendant, and any person or entity acting on its behalf relating to the subject property."

Page 66

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

(Plaintiff Exhibit 41 was marked for identification.)

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. I'm going to -- Ellie, could you call up V2, and I believe that's going to be Plaintiff's Exhibit 41.

Sir, take a minute to take a look at that document, and then I'm going to ask you a few questions about it.

A. Okay.

Q. So, sir, if you could just look -- this is a -- do you recognize this document?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. Okay. What is this document?

A. This document is an agreement between Aries S.A. and Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd.

Q. And remind me what Aries is.

A. Aries is the Cuban entity in charge of the Port of Havana or that manages the Port of

Page 67

Havana.

Q. Okay. And does Aries manage the ports in Cienfuegos?

A. Yes.

Q. And does Aires manage the port in Santiago de Cuba?

A. Yes.

Q. And, sir, if you look on page 2 of this contract -- and actually maybe before we do that, if we go to page 9 of this contract -- and, sir, I forgot to ask you, and I think I know the answer, but are you fluent in Spanish?

A. Yes, I am.

Q. And you can read Spanish?

A. Yes.

Q. This document is in Spanish, but you'll be able to read it today; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You'll be better off than me because I only read Portuguese because I'm from Brazil, but I try my best, so we'll work together.

If you go to page 9 of this document, what does it say the signing date of this document is?

A. Can you repeat the question, please?

Page 68

Q. What date was this document signed?

A. Oh, you're asking me -- oh, the 27th of July 2017.

Q. Okay. And so, sir, if you go back to page 2 of this document, you see on the top there it says, "These are the stops for all ships for the season of 2017 to 2018."

Do you see that?

MR. POSTMAN: I'm sorry. Where are you?

MS. CASEY: Page 2. Page 2 of Plaintiff's Exhibit 41.

A. Yes.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. And then listed there, sir, under bullet points are the Norwegian Sky, the Insignia, the Regatta, the Serena, and the Norwegian Sun. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. Are those Norwegian Cruise Line's ships?

A. Yes, they are.

Q. Okay. And so for the first one, Norwegian Sky, there are 31 stops in Cuban ports. In Havana there are 31 stops. Insignia, there are 16 stops in Cuba, and -- let's see here. Of those, six will be in Havana, five in Cienfuegos, five in

Page 69

Santiago de Cuba. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then the Regatta, three stops in Havana; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And the Serena has approval for four stops in Havana, three stops in Cienfuegos and three stops in Santiago de Cuba. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. And then finally, the Norwegian Sun is approved for four stops in Havana. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. Sir, is it correct that this was the first contract that Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. entered into with Aries?

A. I believe so.

Q. And Norwegian Cruise Line could not stop wherever it wants whenever it wants. It needs to obtain approval from Aries in order to make a stop at a Cuban port; correct?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. That is correct.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. Sir, you testified before we had

Page 78

A. Cuban officials, port authorities, Cuban Coast Guard, immigrations, in meetings and other private meetings between me and Captain Albertini. Those were the Cuban answer to our question -- to my question.

Q. And was there anybody from Norwegian Cruise Line present when Captain Albertini said the other Cuban ports are not available at the time?

A. It might have been at the beginning when some of Norwegian Cruise Lines executives traveled to Cuba. I don't remember if, in fact, that was mentioned. But to elaborate a little bit, I think there is a reason why we didn't start operations in those ports until six, seven months later.

Q. What were those?

A. Exactly that those ports are not available at the beginning of our operations in Cuba.

Q. When Captain Albertini said that the other Cuban ports were not available at the time, did you ask him why?

A. That is not -- I don't -- I did not. But -- but the answer was, they're not available. -- they're not physically available to begin operations. They needed to prep those ports and so forth.

Q. Are you aware of the fact that other cruise lines were calling on Cienfuegos and Santiago de Cuba --

A. Yes, of course.

Q. -- March 2017 and November 2017?

MR. LORENZO: Let her finish asking the questions. You can answer, but please let her finish.

A. Yes.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. And it's your testimony that the decision to -- or I'm sorry. It's your testimony on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Line that Norwegian Cruise Line stopped in Havana only between April or May of 2017 through October of 2017 not because the Norwegian Sky and the Norwegian Sun were vessels that were simply too large to fit in Santiago and Cienfuegos?

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. Could you repeat --

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. That may not have been the most clear question I've ever asked.

Was the fact that the Norwegian Sky and the Norwegian Sun were both large vessels, did that have anything to do with the fact that they did not call on Cienfuegos and Santiago?

Page 80

MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.

A. No.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. Let's turn to the contracts. Let me ask you this.

At the time of between May 2017 and October of 2017, do you know where the Insignia was berthed?

A. No.

Q. Do you know if the Insignia was being used for other itineraries during that period of time?

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know if the marina was being used during May 2017 through November of 2017?

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know whether the Regatta was being used between May 2017 and November of 2017?

A. No, I do not know.

Q. What about the Seven Seas Voyager, do you know if it was being used during that period of time, May 2017 through October 2017?

Page 81

A. No, I do not.

Q. Turning to the contracts which is topic V(I) -- I'm not going to go through all of the --

MR. LORENZO: Thank you.

MS. CASEY: Is everything okay?

MR. LORENZO: Yeah, I just want to get it on our screen. I apologize. The contract.

MR. POSTMAN: That's the depo notice.

MR. LORENZO: The contract, the one that she was just using.

MS. CASEY: All right. Gentlemen, just let me know when you're ready.

MR. LORENZO: We're ready. Thank you very much. I apologize.

BY MS. CASEY:

Q. Okay. Sir, I'm not going to go through all of the contracts, but Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings had -- we started with Aries S.A. -- Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. had contracts with Aries S.A. That's correct; right?

A. Yes.

Q. We looked at one of them.

What about Comar, did Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. have contracts with Comar?

A. Yes.

Page 82

Q. All right. Can you tell me what Comar is?
A. It's a legal firm that specializes in maritime law and represents Aries.
Q. And it stands for Consultores Maritimos S.A.?
A. I don't remember what it stands for, but maybe, yes.
Q. Who was involved in negotiating the contract with Comar?
A. Norwegian legal counsel.
Q. Who would that be? What person?
A. I believe Mr. Lincoln Vidal.
Q. Anyone else?
A. My contact was Lincoln Vidal for this purpose.
Q. Is Comar an independent law firm or does it have ties to the Cuban Government?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. That's a question that should be addressed to Comar.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Were you or Fuego Enterprises responsible for communicating or liaising with Comar on behalf of Norwegian Cruise Line?

Page 83

A. In some cases we did, yes -- I did.
Q. And what would those circumstances be?
A. Either bringing original documents from NCL to Cuba or vice versa, or in some cases requesting Comar to respond or reply to Mr. Vidal's comments or emails or calls.
Q. Who did you talk to over there at Comar?
A. I don't remember the name, but the person in charge of Comar and the lawyer -- particular lawyer involved in these transactions.
Q. What about Havanatur, did Norwegian Cruise Line have contracts with Havanatur?
A. Yes.
Q. And what is Havanatur?
A. Havanatur is a travel agency.
Q. What services did Havanatur provide to Norwegian Cruise Line?
A. The excursions.
Q. It arranged excursions for passengers of Norwegian Cruise Line?
A. Yes. You could say yes.
Q. Is it an agency of the Cuban Government?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. I cannot answer that question.

Page 84

BY MS. CASEY:
Q. I'm sorry. I don't think I heard you.
A. I don't know.
Q. Who was involved in the negotiation of the contracts with Havanatur?
A. Legal counsels at Norwegian and myself.
Q. Who from Norwegian Cruise Line?
A. Mr. Lincoln Vidal.
Q. Anybody else from Norwegian Cruise Line?
A. Not that I remember.
Q. And what was your involvement?
A. I made suggestions, reviewed the agreements, and negotiated terms.
Q. Were these communications regarding the Havanatur contract negotiations made by email?
A. In my particular case it was in person.
Q. In person with Mr. Vidal?
A. No, in person with the principals of Havanatur.
Q. And what about Mambisa, did Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings enter into any contract with an entity named "Mambisa"?
A. Yes, Consignataria Mambisa.
Q. What is Mambisa?
A. They are the port agent.

Page 85

Q. Okay. What services does Mambisa provide as a port agent?
A. Services related to being the port agent, attending to the cleaning of the ships, the -- I'll have to -- to dig it up a little bit, but they were the port agencies in charge of the operations of the cruise ship when the cruise line actually docked at the Port of Havana.
Q. And is Mambisa an agent for the Cuban Government?
MR. LORENZO: Objection to form.
A. I don't know.
BY MS. CASEY:
Q. Is Mambisa the port agent for all ports in Cuba?
A. Mambisa is the port agent for the Port of Santiago and the Port of Cienfuegos.
Q. And the Port of Havana?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was involved in the negotiation of the contract with Mambisa?
A. I believe Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings' legal department.
Q. And would that be Mr. Vidal as well?
A. Yes.
